

ATIPAX BLEND

“Wine of great complexity”

Depth and complexity are the hallmarks of this blend of malbec, cabernet sauvignon and bonarda. Making its debut with the 2004 vintage, Gabriel considers this wine as his cornerstone.

ORIGIN

Mendoza - Argentina.

OAK

50% Roble Americano - 50% Roble Francés.

TASTING NOTES

Aromas of ripe blackberries, currant, dark cherries and toast. A dense, brooding palate unfolds in viscous layers of ripe black fruits and dried herbs, enhanced with notes of smoke and lavender. Very fine-grained tannins frame this seamless wine and lead to a silky, persistent finish.

RECOMMENDATIONS
